

Schedule for University President's Visit

12 October 1983

0900-0930	Arrival of Visitors (Lauder, [redacted])	DCI Conference Room	STAT
0930-0945:	Welcome by DCI (DCI, Ex Dir, Lauder, [redacted])	" " "	STAT
0945-1030:	Introduction to the Agency by Ex Dir	" " "
1030-1040:	Break
1040-1130:	DDI Briefing (Gates, Lauder, [redacted])	" " "	STAT
1130-1220:	DDS&T Briefing (Hineman, Lauder, [redacted])	" " "	STAT
1220-1230:	Break
1230-1300:	Discussion and Refreshments (Ex Dir hosting, Gates, Hineman, [redacted] [redacted] [redacted] Lauder, [redacted])	Executive Dining Room	STAT STAT SIAI
1300-1400:	Luncheon (As above)	" " "
1400-1530:	DDO Briefing [redacted] Lauder, [redacted]	DCI Conference Room	STAT
1530-1600:	Final Meeting with DCI (DCI, DDCI, Ex Dir, Lauder, [redacted])	" " "	STAT
1600:	Departure of Visitors

Distribution: (All with attachment)

1 - DCI
1 - DDCI
1 - EX DIR
1 - ER
1 - DD/A
1 - DD/O
1 - DDS&T
1 - DD/I
1 - IG
1 - DCD/DDO
1 - D/PERS/DDA
1 - DD/OP/R&P/DDA
1 - C/CTTF/OP/DDA
1 - D/OEE0/OP/DDA
1 - D/PAO
1 - DD/PAO
2 - CAA/PAO
CAA/PAO

STAT

BERENDZEN, RICHARD E. President of American University since 1980. He was born in Walters, Oklahoma, September 6, 1938. He received his B.S. from M.I.T. and his M.A. and Ph.D. from Harvard. He is married and has two children. Dr. Berendzen worked as a research scientist for private industry from 1959-65. He taught astronomy at Boston University, 1965-73, and was, successively, Professor of Physics and Chairman of the College of Arts and Sciences at American University from 1974-80. He has been a lecturer at numerous universities in this country and at Kuwait University in 1979. Dr. Berendzen has been an advisor to the American Council on Education, the International Communications Agency, NASA, the National Geographic Society, and other organizations. He is on the Board of Directors of both the Business Council for International Understanding and the Association of American Colleges and is Chairman of the National Commission on Foreign Student Policy. Dr. Berendzen is the author of Education in and History of Modern Astronomy and has contributed numerous articles to professional journals.

CAVAZOS, LAURO F. President of Texas Tech University since 1980.

He was born in King Ranch, Texas on January 4, 1927. He received his B.A. and M.A. from Texas Tech and his Ph.D. from Iowa State University. He is married and has ten children. He served with the U.S. Army from 1945-46. Dr. Cavazos taught anatomy at the Medical College of Virginia from 1956-64. Subsequently, he was professor of anatomy at the Tufts University School of Medicine, 1964-80, becoming Dean of the School in 1975. He is active as an advisor or consultant to a number of medical associations and is on the Board of Regents of the Uniformed Services University of Health Science. Dr. Cavazos is also active in numerous civic organizations and is a member of several organizations involved with higher education. He has also served on the editorial boards of four professional publications and has contributed numerous articles for textbooks and journals.

GEE, E. GORDON President of West Virginia University since November 1981. He was born in Vernal, Utah, February 2, 1944. He received his B.A. from the University of Utah and his J.D. and Ed.D. from Columbia. After serving as law clerk to the Chief Judge for the U.S. 10th Circuit in Salt Lake City, Dr. Gee became Assistant Dean of the Law School at the University of Utah in 1973. In 1975, he became Associate Dean and Professor of Law at the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah. He joined West Virginia University as Dean of the Law School in 1979. He is a member of the Commission to Consider Standards for Admission to Practice in Federal Courts. Dr. Gee is the author of Bread and Butter -- Electives in American Legal Education, Bridging the Gap -- Legal Education and the Lawyer Competency, and Education Law and the Public Schools -- A Compendium.

HACKERMAN, NORMAN President of Rice University in Houston, Texas since 1970. He was born in Baltimore, March 2, 1912. He received his A.B. and his Ph.D. from Johns Hopkins. He is married and has four children. Dr. Hackerman alternately taught chemistry and worked as a research chemist for private industry or for the U.S. Coast Guard during the 1940s. He was Professor of Chemistry at the University of Texas at Austin, 1950-70, and President of the University from 1967-70. He has been a Professor of Chemistry, as well as President, at Rice since 1970. He has won a number of awards for his work on corrosion, was Chairman of the National Science Board from 1979-80, and has been a member of the Defense Science Board since 1978. Dr. Hackerman is a member of numerous professional societies, a trustee of the Mitre Corporation, and, since 1969, has been Editor of the "Journal of the Electrochemical Society." He has had numerous articles published in professional journals.

LOFTSGARD, LAUREL D. President of North Dakota State University since 1968. He was born in Hoople, N.D., September 4, 1926. He received his B.S. from North Dakota State and his Ph.D. from Iowa State. He is married and has two children. He served with the U.S. Army 1946-47 and 1950-51. Dr. Loftsgard joined the faculty of North Dakota State in 1958, teaching agricultural economics; he was Director of the North Dakota Water Resources Research Institute between 1966-68 and, simultaneously, held the position of Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University. He was the civilian aide to the Secretary of the Army for North Dakota, 1975-77. He is a director of two banks and is a member of several professional and civic associations. Dr. Loftsgard has contributed articles to various professional publications.

NESTI, DONALD S. President of Duquesne University in Pittsburgh since 1980. He was born in Monessen, Pennsylvania on January 3, 1936. He was ordained a priest in the Order of the Congregation of the Holy Ghost in 1963, received an S.T.D. from the Gregorian College in Rome in 1970, did post-doctoral research in theology at Cambridge University in 1972 and received his M.A. from the University of Pittsburgh in 1976. Father Nesti has taught theology at Duquesne since 1967. He is active in educational and civic organizations, including the American Association of University Administrators, the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities, the Allegheny Conference on Community Development, and is presently the Chairman of the Pittsburgh Council on Higher Education. He has published one book, Grace and Faith -- the Means of Salvation. Father Nesti has done considerable research on the Society of Friends and has had several articles on that subject published.

SWEARER, HOWARD R. President of Brown University in Providence, Rhode Island since 1977. He was born in Hutchinson, Kansas, March 13, 1932. He received his A.B. from Princeton, his M.A. and Ph.D. from Harvard. He is married and has three children. Dr. Swearer taught political science at U.C.L.A. between 1960-67. He was the program officer in charge in the Office of European and International Affairs for the Ford Foundation, 1967-70. He was president of Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota, from 1970-77. Dr. Swearer is on the board of directors of, among other organizations, Textron Inc., the German Marshall Fund for the U.S., and the American Council on Education. He is also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

VAN HORN, RICHARD L. Chancellor of the University of Houston since July 1983. He was born in Chicago, November 2, 1932. He received his B.S. from Yale, has M.S. from M.I.T. and his Ph.D. from Carnegie-Mellon. He is married and has three daughters. He was with the Rand Corporation in Santa Monica from 1956-67; head of the management systems group from 1960-64 and senior staff member of the management sciences department, 1966-67. Dr. Van Horn was with Carnegie-Mellon University between 1967 and 1983, moving from Associate Dean of the Graduate School of Industrial Administration to Provost and Professor of Management. He is a consultant to several corporations and government organizations. He has co-authored three books on data processing and management systems, has contributed many articles to professional journals, and is Associate Editor of the "Journal of the Institute of Management Sciences."